Spotlight Program -
Play with your food!

Fraction Feast - November 10 @ 3:45 pm

If playing with your food while learning about math sounds like fun, then join us for this program where we'll be using different kinds of food to learn about fractions and how to make even shares. This program will be using real foods and if your child has food allergies, please check with the Children's Library before signing up. For 3rd, 4th and 5th graders. Supported by the Amadeo Family. Registration is Probably Pretzels - November 17 @ 3:45

What are the chances that there will be pretzels at this program? Certain. What are the chances that there will be a real live orangutan at this program? Very unlikely...we hope. Come play with your food and learn about the mathematical concept of probability and how we use it almost every day. This program will be using real foods and if your child has food allergies, please check with the Children's Library before signing up. For 3rd, 4th and 5th graders. Supported by the Amadeo Family. Registration is required.

Tessellating Tasty Treats - November 24 @ 3:45 pm

Did you know that if you tessellate one shape you can make an interesting and creative design? Come learn what tessellating is and then create a cool design using some tasty treats. We will have a few extra to snack on as well. This program will be using real foods and if your child has food allergies, please check with the Children's Library before signing up. For 3rd, 4th and 5th graders. Supported by the Amadeo Family. Registration is required
Cider Mill and Wilton Library partner to offer kids a Nutmeg book club! The Nutmeg Book Award is a program designed for kids in the state of Connecticut. Each year children have the opportunity to read ten carefully chosen books and then vote for their favorite in May. We will come together on November 19 at 3pm to discuss the books, have snacks, play games, and do other fun book-related activities. This month’s book to read in advance of the book club is One Dog and His Boy by Eva Ibbotson. Please register in advance.

Join our Young Readers Circle Today!

Children through age 12 can become a member of the Young Readers Circle, ensuring that your donation of $25 per child ($75 for three or more children) will be used for the Children's Library books, materials and programs. It is through your support that the Children's Library is able to provide the many programs and events that it does throughout the year.

New members of the Young Readers Circle receive: DVD rentals for one week at $1.00; Young Readers Circle Decal; Recognition in the Annual Report; An invitation for the Annual Young Readers Circle Cupcake Social held in June. Membership for the Young Readers Circle is on an annual basis.

Thank you for your support!
