Join us for Human Library
 Saturday, March 24 • 1—5 pm

"Don't judge a book by its cover"—but in this case, we mean human beings, not books! Community members share their stories to break down barriers based on appearance or identity--come hear their stories. Wilton Library is the first non-academic library in CT to receive permission from the Human Library Organization to host an event for this international movement. Want to be a book? Visit our website and fill out an application.
