Wilton Reads 2017
WAITING FOR SNOW IN HAVANA

Join us for our community-wide Wilton Reads 2017 events

We welcome all community members to join us this fall as we come together to read, discuss and reflect upon Waiting for Snow in Havana: Confessions of a Cuban Boy by Carlo Eire for our twelfth Wilton Reads event. Wilton Reads has given us an opportunity through fine literature to sharpen our view of ourselves and the world around us. Free books being given away on Oct. 3 sponsored by Fairfield County Bank. Carlos Eire visits on Wednesday, Nov. 8 for an enlightening talk about his memoir. See the library’s website for details on all the programs in this community-wide reading event, including activities for children.

Discover, Dabble, Do-It-Yourself at Wilton Library's 3rd annual Innovation Day!

Saturday, October 21 • 1—5 pm

Join us for a festival of making, creating and demonstrating. Explore, Try, Learn and Have Fun! Test out virtual reality, snap circuits and Makey Makey; light up an apron with LEDs; make jewelry, gift tags and button pins; check out a telescope; watch 3-D printing; see our Hovercraft in motion; get a Henna or spray tattoo and more! Then grab a snack from one of the food trucks parked outside. The day is free! Certain activities will have a nominal fee to offset costs. Media sponsor: Good Morning Wilton

Make sure you sign up for our weekly electronic newsletter, The Week Ahead. It arrives in your email box the Wednesday before the start of the next week with a listing of that week’s programs. Register for the newsletter by visiting the library’s website at www.wiltonlibrary.org.

Please note: The library will close at 6 pm on Thursday, Oct. 5 for Ladies’ Soirée. The library will be closed Monday, Oct. 9 in observance of Columbus Day.
