FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Wilton artists invited to show at Wilton Library's Summer Art Exhibition

Wilton, CT – Wilton artists are invited to show their paintings, pastels, drawings or sculptures in Wilton Library's 64th annual Summer Art Exhibition which begins Tuesday, July 1, with an opening reception on Friday, July 11, from 6 – 7:30 p.m. Artists can bring their one or two entries to the library on Saturday, June 28 and Monday, June 30, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. All artwork must be framed and wired. Entry forms are available at the library. The exhibition is open to all adult Wilton residents.

According to Ed MacEwen, Wilton Library's art chairman, "The Summer Show is one of the exhibitions that patrons and artists look forward to and can count on each year. Patrons get to see familiar and popular artists returning year after year, along side new talent. It's always fun to see fresh ideas coming in to this exhibit. Artists appreciate the gallery and wall space throughout the library where their works seem to thrive."

The summer show generally gets about 40 - 50 artists displaying upwards of 80 pieces. The show's diversity in styles and subject matter also make it a perennial favorite. The majority of the pieces will be available for purchase, with a portion of the proceeds benefiting the library. Wilton Library is located at 137 Old Ridgefield Road in the heart of Wilton Center. Library hours are Monday through Thursday, 10 – 8; Friday 10 – 6, Saturday 10 – 5. The library is closed Sundays in the summer. The Summer Art Show runs through Friday, Aug. 29. For more information, call (203) 762-3950 or visit the library's Web site at www.wiltonlibrary.org.
