FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Call for Entries for Wilton Library's Summer Show

Wilton, CT – Flowers have sprung, the thermometer temps are creeping upward and days are getting longer – all signs of the approaching summer season – and with it Wilton Library's Summer Show "call for entries." The show is open to all adult artists from Wilton. The categories are paintings, pastels, drawings and sculptures with up to two pieces per artist. Entries must be wired and framed and will be accepted on Friday June 26 and Saturday, June 27 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on both days. Entry forms are available either at the front desk of the library or they can be printed from Wilton Library's website at www.wiltonlibrary.org.

The library's 65th annual summer art exhibition opens July 1 with a reception on Friday, July 10, from 6 – 7:30 p.m. Based on past years, more than 50 artists are expected to exhibit upwards of 100 pieces, with diversity in styles, media, and subject matter choices. According to the library's art chairman Ed MacEwen, "The Summer Show is an anticipated highlight at the library each year. It's a chance for Wilton artists to exhibit their works, and a time when neighbors and friends can see what an extraordinary community this is and the talent that resides here." A portion of the proceeds from the sale of the artwork will benefit the library. The exhibit runs through August 27. Library hours are Monday through Thursday, 10 – 8, Friday, 10 – 6, Saturday 10 – 5 and closed Sundays in the summer. For more information, please call Wilton Library's art chairman Ed MacEwen at (203) 227-8502, Janet Crystal at (203) 762-3950 ext. 226, or visit the library's website at www.wiltonlibrary.org.
