FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Friends gather for Wilton Library's annual meeting with an eye to the future

Wilton, CT – The Friends of Wilton Library Association get together for the 116th year to celebrate the library on Sunday, June 12, beginning at 4 p.m. The annual meeting is open to the public and includes the election of officers for the Board of Trustees, appointment of new trustees, acknowledgement of those who are retiring from the Board of Trustees, and the presentation of awards for Wilton Library's outstanding volunteer and staff person of the year. Following the meeting, speaker Watts Wacker, a renowned futurist, author, social commentator and provocateur, will address the audience.

The proposed slate of officers for the new fiscal year is Judy Higby, president; Michael Kaelin, vice president; Robert Kelso, treasurer and Whitney Janeway, secretary. Retiring board members Shirley Bergin, Trish Clifford and David Waters will be honored and new trustees will be welcomed.

Guest speaker Watts Wacker is one of the most celebrated and influential minds in modern business. His uncommon versatility and vision has allowed him to help the world's top corporations and organizations navigate the sea of change that is taking hold in the new millennium. He has been the futurist at SRI International, the legendary Menlo Park think tank, and spent ten years as the resident futurist at the social research organization, Yankelovich Partners.

A reception will follow the election, awards presentation and speaker. Advance registration is encouraged. For information, registration and directions, visit www.wiltonlibrary.org or call 203-762-3950, ext. 213. Wilton Library is located at 137 Old Ridgefield Road in Wilton Center. The library will be closing at 4 p.m. on Sunday to accommodate the meeting.
