FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Wilton Library's Summer Show Call for Entries June 26 and 28 with Reception July 9

Wilton, CT – Wilton Library is calling for Wilton artists to adorn its walls with artwork for the 66th Annual Summer Show. Wilton adults may enter up to two pieces per artist in the categories of paintings, pastels, drawings and sculptures for the popular art exhibition. Works will be accepted on Saturday, June 26 and Monday, June 28, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. both days; artists should note that the library is closed on Sundays in the summer. Entries must be framed and wired with the appropriate paperwork attached to the artwork identifying the artist, title and price. Forms are available at the circulation desk at the library and on the library's website at www.wiltonlibrary.org (click on July 9 date in Events).

The opening reception for the Summer Show is Friday, July 9, from 6 to 7:30 p.m. The majority of the works will be available for purchase with a portion of the proceeds benefiting the library's art fund. The reception is open to the public. The exhibition will run through Friday, August 27.

According to Ed MacEwen, art chairman for the library, "The Summer Show is always well received here at the library. It's the time when friends and neighbors can marvel at each others' talents – some known, some hidden – and the library's walls come alive with the array of styles, subject matter and color." This year's show is expected to feature more than 50 artists with close to 100 pieces of art.

Wilton Library is located at 137 Old Ridgefield Road in the heart of Wilton Center. For information, call Ed MacEwen (203) 227-8502 or Janet Crystal (203) 762-3950 ext. 226.
