Author Talk: Bill McKibben – Eaarth Thursday, April 28, 7 pm

Bill McKibben is an American environmentalist and writer who frequently writes about global warming and alternative energy and advocates for more localized economies. He visits Wilton Library to share his most recent thoughts from his book, Eaarth: Making a Life on a Tough New Planet, giving some optimism and hope to a planet that has been ravaged. No charge. Registration strongly recommended. Book available for purchase and signing. Tim LaBant, chef/owner of the Schoolhouse at Cannondale, will provide a light tasting during the reception following the talk. Sponsored by the Betsy and Jesse Fink Foundation for Wilton Library's Environmental Initiative.

To register: www.wiltonlibrary.org/events, call (203) 762-3950, ext. 213.
