FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Friends connect at Wilton Library's Ladies' Soirée Sunday, Sept. 21

Wilton, CT – The women of Wilton will be toasting each other and the library at Wilton Library's ninth annual Ladies' Soirée on Sunday, Sept. 21, from 6 – 8 p.m. “The theme for the fund-raiser is Celebrating Friends, a continuation of the sentiment from last year,” stated Lelei Coyle, one of the four chairpersons of the event. “We felt the fit was just right – the time of year, reconnecting with friends after the summer, and welcoming everyone back to the library.”

A silent auction, hors d'oeuvres and new and renewed friendships are the highlight of the evening. Some of the silent auction items include merchandise and gift certificates from Snappy Gator, Cake Boutique, Witchy Poo, Personal Training Professionals (PTP) and Open House, among others. Kimberly Johnson, another chair of the event, noted, “Guests will be thrilled with the elegantly-displayed silent auction items focusing on the friendship theme. The giving tree will go to new technology for the Children's Library – a new self checkout station.”

Attendees will be able to munch on tasty hors d'oeuvres provided by Ivey's In My Kitchen and Tyler Thors and sip on cosmos while catching up with friends and meeting new faces. Chairs for the event Susan Cramer and Priscilla Thors noted, “The ladies will be served by some of Wilton's most charming husbands!”

The cost for the evening is $50 per person payable by cash, check or credit card either at the circulation desk in advance or Sunday evening at the door. Proceeds benefit the library. Advance reservations are recommended however walk-ins are also welcome. Reservations may be made by visiting the library's Web site at www.wiltonlibrary.org/events or calling the library at (203) 762-3950, ext. 270. Wilton Library is located in the heart of Wilton Center at 137 Old Ridgefield Road.
