FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Wilton Library's Summer Show Art Exhibition Returns with Call for Entries to Local Wilton Artists
*Call for Entries set for Friday, July 10

Wilton, Conn. – June 10, 2026 – Wilton Library is pleased to announce the return of its annual Summer Show art exhibition, which celebrates local artists who live or work in Wilton. The Call for Entries is set for Friday, July 10, 2026 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the library. This is the 80th year that the library will welcome local talent to display their works in this non-juried summer art exhibition.

Adult artists (18 and older) who wish to exhibit in the art show may submit one piece of artwork. New this year: for the first time, the show will be open to children artists (maximum of 15 artists) and photography (maximum of 15 artists). Submissions may include sculptures. With the exception of sculptures, all works must be wired and ready to hang, and artists must take away their packing materials.

The Summer Show art exhibition runs from July 13 through August 28. The Artists' Opening Reception for the Summer Show is on Friday, July 17, from 6 to 7:30 p.m. at the library. The reception is free and is open to the public. Participating artists are encouraged to bring their friends and families to the reception.

For details and entry forms, interested artists may visit the library's website at www.wiltonlibrary.org/summer-show. Any inquiries may be directed to artcommittee@wiltonlibrary.org.

The majority of the works will be available for purchase with a portion of the proceeds benefiting the library. The library's hours are Monday through Thursday, 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.; Friday, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.; and Saturday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. The library is closed on Sundays starting on Sunday, June 21 through Sunday, August 30. The library will be closed on Friday, July 3 and Saturday, July 4 in observance of Independence Day.
